

Central coordination of promotional material review through a dedicated software

BlueReg supported a US-based client with its promotional launch campaign in Europe for their new medicinal product. BlueReg provided full coverage for all aspects of setting up and coordinating the global and local reviews of the various promotional items of the launch campaign.