System Validation Publishing Software Upgrade

A global pharmaceutical company specialising exclusively in the research, development and marketing of medical solutions for dermatology entrusted BlueReg (BR) to validate its Publishing Software.

With the objective to proceed with a major upgrade of their Publishing tool, and the wish to limit the impact on their business, the client contacted BlueReg Publishing Team in order to participate and manage several steps of the validation process.